

Institute to hold GATT workshop

KUALA LUMPUR, Fri. — The Institute of Diplomacy and Foreign Relations will hold a four-day workshop on the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) from Monday.

Officers from various government agencies involved in the implementation of the trade arrangement are expected to participate.

The workshop will be opened by International Trade and Industry Ministry secretary-general Asmat Kamaluddin.

The objective of the workshop, to be conducted by GATT officers, is to enable the participants to know the background of the formation of GATT and its function in the world economy.
